

DEBRECENI EGYETEM KÜLSŐ KAPCSOLATOK IGAZGATÓSÁGA

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

To whom it may concern

This is to certify that the partner organization participating as a hosting institute in the Erasmus Mobility Programme does not have financial obligations in relation to the Erasmus placement.

The University of Debrecen undertakes to pay the Erasmus contribution to the beneficiary for subsistence, travel and insurance costs.

The Erasmus placement is a vocational training for the beneficiary, the hosting partner organization does not have any obligation to employ during or after the placement.

The Erasmus Mobility Programme belongs to the European Union financed “Lifelong Learning Programme” which aims at enabling people who are involved in vocational education and training to benefit from work experience placement and carrier development opportunities in another country.

Debrecen, 05 August 2008

Tibor TÓTH

ERASMUS Assistant

University of Debrecen

